

John Ruby Memorial Scholarship

Applications due May 2, 2022

Turn in application at SJSHS Front Office!

This scholarship was established in the fall of 2018, to recognize former Santiam High School student, John Ruby (1972). John was more than just an outstanding football player during his days at Santiam High School. His caring and compassionate attitude for others was demonstrated throughout his life. Everyone who knew John knew about his sense of humor and his willingness to put others a head of himself. As a football player John was a leader and fierce competitor. Tragically, John lost his life during the summer of 2018 try to help save a neighbor's property during the "Substation Fire" near, The Dalles, Oregon.

Scholarship Criteria:

- Graduating senior on the Santiam High School football team.
- During their senior football season demonstrated the characteristics listed above that John possessed.
